

Kimberly Behzadi, MBA
Web Designer

Kimberly Behzadi, is a storyteller and a strategist. She is a recent graduate of the University at Buffalo's full-time MBA program with concentrations in marketing and consulting. She also received her Advanced Certificate in New Media Design in 2016 from UB specializing in website design with WordPress, JQuery, and Bootstrap.

She is currently a Social Media Marketing Manager for Kodak Alaris. She specializes in digital content strategy and social media strategy and works with local businesses, non-profits, and startups in the Buffalo area. She also volunteers with the Buffalo International Film Festival and Creative Mornings Buffalo.