

Denise Herkey-Jarosch Manager

Denise Herkey-Jarosch is a Manager with Blount Consulting Solutions, LLC. Denise has over 20 years of experience in program, project, and event coordination, public & media relations, community development, and legislative affairs.

Denise has worked with several local not-for-profit organizations to deliver community-based education, health-based program coordination, affordable housing and community development programs and services. She also worked for the NYS Assembly. Denise received her Master of Urban Planning degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo and her Bachelor of Science degree from Buffalo State College.

Denise volunteers as the District Activist Leader for the National Multiple Sclerosis (MS) Society. She resides in North Buffalo with her husband and two children.